

"THE DOG DIRECTORY"

"The information guide all dog enthusiasts should have"

The Red River North Dog Obedience of Fargo is pleased to announce that the first edition of "The Dog Directory" has arrived and is available for sale! This new and unique publication is conveniently sized and jam-packed with local and regional dog specific listings arranged under 17 topic headings. The varied listings have been compiled from personal or written survey contacts, advertising outlets, and other publicly available sources, including the internet. The finished product is specifically designed to provide dog lovers, professionals, and other interested consumers with a valuable resource guide for locating information, services, products and businesses related to our canine friends! Even better, the directory is available for only $8.50 per copy, tax included ($8.02 + 48 cents sales tax).
